A hundred chart is a great tool for children who are learning to write numbers up to 100.

Instructions

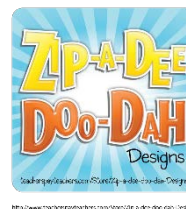

- ♥ The colored "100 Chart" is a reference tool for children to use while completing the activities.
- ♥ Begin by asking the children to look at the "100 Chart" for patterns. For example, all the numbers that end in "2" are in the same column.
- ♥ The worksheets are numbered in order of difficulty. On each worksheet, the children need to write the missing numbers in the blank boxes.
- ♥ The blank hundred chart can be used to assess how the children write the numbers to 100 independently.
